

Birri Cultural and Intellectual Property Rights Statement

I, Jill Dodd First Nations Birri woman, in accordance with Birri principles, protocols, customary and moral obligations recognise the importance of the protection, preservation and use of Birri traditional language, right of authorship, expression of art in traditional and contemporary styles, storytelling, illustrations and educational resources ie. Birri Language Educational Resources and Flash Cards.

Protecting the integrity of Birri Cultural and Intellectual Property Rights is important for all present and future generations.

My Birri traditional language books and resources may NOT, under any circumstances be copied, modified or reproduced without my written permission.